High School

Science and Mathematics
PERCY MDALA HIGH SCHOOL

Percy Mdala High School offers Grades 8 to 12. In all of Knysna's history, few people can have served their community with the devotion that Percy Mdala did. Percy Mdala came here in 1956 to work for Bishop Stainton, who was then Rector of St George's. He taught at St. Paul's Caradoc, which was housed in the church hall at Salt River. When Mdala arrived there, the school had about 25 pupils, and was supported financially by the Anglican Church. It received no funding from the Government's Education Department.
